

MAKES SACRIFICE TO UPHOLD HOME

Mrs. Marie Couchman invites "Stewart Woman" to House to Show Husband Married Man.

THEN ASKED SHE NOT MEET HIM

Twelfth Street Resident Admits in Police Court His Affections for "Affinity" in the Case.

Mrs. Marie Couchman, whose home is on Twelfth street, today unfolded a story in police court in which she told of her plan to save her home from being wrecked by a person she referred to as "the Stewart woman." She said she invited the woman to her home to show her that Paul Couchman, her husband, was a married man, and to appeal to her to cease meeting her husband.

Couchman admitted his affection for the Stewart woman when he took her to his home. He was charged with assault and battery by his wife.

Couchman told his story after his wife in testifying against him, declared that she had invited the Stewart woman to her home that she might prove to her that Couchman was a married man, and that she, the "Stewart woman," was wrecking a family. Couchman admitted that the alleged woman was a result of this invitation, the Stewart woman having appeared at his home. Couchman was fined $5 and costs.

Couchman said that he had no desire to continue to live with his wife, but because of this he had been meeting the other woman.

If M. Casarin prosecuted the case against Couchman in behalf of Mrs. Couchman, Mr. McCaskin attempted to learn the first name and the address of the woman. Couchman would only say that she did not live in this city and that during the time she had been invited to his home by his wife he had never met her there.

Not Required to Answer.

The attorney appealed to the court.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—all these will disappear.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in this country, perfected a vegetable compound purged with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

MOLINE MAN DIES AT KANSAS CITY

Assistant Secretary of D. M. Sechler Carriage Company Succumbs After Hard Fight.

HAD BEEN ILL SINCE SUMMER

Is Forced to Give Up Duties Because of Failing Health After Eight Years at Post.

Word was received in Moline this morning of the death of W. J. Davis, assistant secretary of the D. M. Sechler Carriage Company, from Kansas City, where the deceased had been staying at his brother's medical institution. The remains have been brought to Moline and the funeral will be held from the home of Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Klattenhoff, 611 Fourth avenue, Moline, at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Domicile of Moline will have charge of the services.

The deceased was a pioneer in the development of one of Moline's greatest manufacturing institutions. Twenty-seven years ago he came to Moline and entered the employ of the Sechler concern as a shop workman. His steady effort brought him rapid promotion and for the past eight years had held the position of assistant secretary.

Failing health took him from his work and since the middle of the summer he had been under medical attention. As a man Mr. Davis measured well up to the standard. Despite his loyalty to his employers, he also found time to work for the city's interests and in this endeavor he did much as a member of the board of education of Moline.

Wife and Son Survive.

He was born in Richmond Center, Wis., Dec. 25, 1865, where he grew to manhood. As a young man he spent a few years on a ranch in Kansas, coming to Moline in 1888. He was married to Louise Klattenhoff in Moline, Sept. 25, 1894, and to that union one son, William S., was born, who now survives, with the widow. Other survivors are five brothers, Dr. E. and Charles of Kansas City, James of Richmond Center, Wis., Lee of Axtel, Kan., and Robert of Caluse, Ala. Interment will be in Riverside tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Carrie Barge, field secretary of the Woman's Home Mission society of the Methodist delivered a scholarly address yesterday morning at the First Methodist church at the annual thank offering service of the local mission society. Miss Barge is a splendid speaker and has much to offer to tell her hearers, speaking especially of the need of a good example by the countries in home mission work from where are sent out missionaries to foreign lands. She viewed her subject from philosophical standpoint and held closely the attention of a large audience. In the afternoon Miss Barge spoke before the Woman's Mission society of Spencer Memorial Methodist church at the annual thank offering service.
